Search Team Assists In Inyo County Missing Man

While in the midst of making final arrangements on Friday evening for their fashion show, which culminated the events of Search and Rescue Days, the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team received a call for assistance from John Fusso, head ranger of the Ash Mountain National Forest, located 12 miles northwest of Independence, Calif.

Reported missing was Richard Oldfield, 28 years old of Bakersfield. He had gone into the Gardner Lakes Basin on October 5 for some fishing and camping and was due home Tuesday evening. He did not return home and was reported missing on Wednesday morning by his wife.

An immediate search by Inyo County Sheriff deputies and U.S. Forest Service personnel, turned up nothing until his car was found at Onion Valley, where the trail starts for Gardner Lakes.

Mr. Oldfield went into the backcountry alone, with only four days of food, a pack with sleeping bag and a light sweater. He is an experienced backpacker and is thought to be in good physical condition.

A storm front was rapidly approaching and with these facts in mind, seven members of the SMSR team left Friday evening, to be joined later by members of the Montrose and Riverside Mountain Rescue Teams. The teams entered the field late Friday night in a rain storm which later became a driving snow storm Saturday. The teams continued to search as best they could, but with whiteout and blizzard conditions, no clues were turned. Chances are good for survival for Mr. Oldfield, if he has found some shelter, as he was not carrying a tent, reported Larry Twedell, operations leader for the SMSR teams at the scene.

Before the Change of Scoutmaster Ceremonies, Father O'Malley presented an award of appreciation to Mr. Hyke from the boys.

Sierra Madreans Meet: Sgt. James A. Teal

SGT. JAMES A. TEAL

... The Smiling Sergeant

The term "unforgettable incidents" brings so many things to mind for Sgt. James A. Teal of the Sierra Madre Police Department that he quietly chuckles and shakes his head. His expressive and thoughtful eyes also smile. "I wouldn't know where to start. Something is always happening that is unforgettable in a great way or another and a great deal of it relates to situations that the general public just wouldn't believe."

"Or," he paused, "Something that, while considered routine for people in our field of work, is not exactly a subject for parlor discussion."

This leads you to perhaps agree with his wife of 17 years, Lorraine, who says he really ought to write a book. Writing would present very little, if any, difficulties for the Sergeant as he has written various departmental manuals both here and in other cities. For example, he wrote the "Police Baton Manual" for the Sierra Madre and for Palm Springs. And he has already written the revision of the "Records Manual" which he originally wrote for the Sierra Madre Police Department.

Both James Teal and his wife are natives of Pontiac, Michigan; it was in Pontiac that, at the age of 19, he and his wife had a dry cleaning establishment for a year and a half until he went into the Army in October of 1952. During his two-year period of enlistment at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, in the Infantry and Engineering Corps he was a Platoon Sergeant, with the classification of Engineer involved in the training of troops. His initiation to police work came while still in the service when he worked in the Military Police, and this was Sgt. Teal's first taste of any type of police work.

The stint in the Military Police and his father's posi-

County Fire Dept. To Seed Foothills

Nearly 4,000 acres of valuable watershed area burned over in four disastrous fires this summer will be seeded by the County of Los Angeles Fire Department during the next week.

County Fire Chief Keith E. Klinger said that nearly 16 tons of annual ryegrass will be used as an emergency erosion control measure.

Actual seeding will be done by County Fire Department helicopter, under the direct supervision of Head Deputy Forester Arthur Arndt. The job is expected to take three days.

Klinger said the area involved in the seeding extends from Little Dalton Canyon in Glendora on the east to Mount Bliss north of Duarte-Bradbury. Areas inside the Angeles National Forest will be seeded by U.S. Forest Service crews at a later date.

The area was burned over in the Easley Canyon, San Gabriel Canyon, Newman and Quarry fires.

Arndt explained the seeding will be done at the rate of eight pounds per acre. Germination time for ryegrass usually is seven days, but actual time will depend on climatic condition. The seed will provide temporary vegetative cover until the native brush can grow back. Southern California's chaparral has a remarkable ability to recover following a fire.

Population & Building Up

Los Angeles County population reached a mid-year total of 7,119,184 a gain of 16,287 during the second quarter and an increase of 31,507 since the beginning of the year.

The population of the County's 77 cities totaled 6,074,332 on July first a gain of 18,712 in past three months, while during the same period the unincorporated area population declined 2,425 to a total of 1,004,852.

The ranking of the County's ten largest cities on July first was as follows: 1. Los Angeles, 2,841,541; 2. Long Beach, 383,378; 3. Glendale, 137,481; 4. Torrance, 133,847; 5. Pasadena, 125,766; 6. Downey, 97,307; 7. Burbank, 97,267; 8. Norwalk, 85,864; 9. Santa Monica, 81,313; and 10. Inglewood, 89,782.

Sierra Madre went along with the rest of the incorporated areas now showing a population of 12,125 as compared to July 1, 1967 of 11,882 and holding its 61 place among the 77 incorporated cities of the county.

In dwelling units Sierra Madre surged ahead with a total as of July 1, 1968 of 4,479 dwelling units as compared with 3,613 for the year 1960, an increase of 866. The 1966 total showed a total of 4,168 and the increase in the past two years has been 311 units. Sierra Madre is reported to have an area of 2,935 square miles and is scheduled for a population of 16,000 by 1975 and 24,000 by 1980.

Christmas Mail For Overseas

The following periods have been designated for mailing Christmas parcels to members of the Armed Forces overseas, Postmaster Guy Rossi announced this week:

Oh, what a week! . . . The rains have returned, as I well knew they would when they left last spring, but did they have to come back with such great fury, ripping and tearing up our little valley . . . gee, it sure made me homesick for the state of Kansas.

Of course in Kansas we had the thunder, lightning, hail, wind and rain almost every week of the summer months and we used to sit on the back porch and enjoy it to the fullest extent, especially after a hot day of 110 in the shade and no shade . . . but that's been some 38 years ago, and since that day I have aged just a little and now I don't especially care to jump half out of my skin when those bolts of lightning hit.

This kind of action also raises the hair on every firefighter. He is constantly on edge, should the electricity go off, his radio is not working and he must listen for the air horn, which only has a minimum amount of air with the electricity off, so if it is a constant one, he must then go to the station as a stand-by.

Due to the long dry summer, many electric and telephone wires are brittle and wind and rain bring them down in droves, and each of them is a potential fire unless noted and marked for immediate repair . . . It's all in a year's work, but, nevertheless, it does make one a little nervous at times.

I see by this week's paper that the Sierra Madre Firefighters have set the date, and the place for their 48th annual Christmas Dance . . . gee, didn't we all have fun last year? Well, it's going to be at La Salle again this year, but due to conflict of dates, it was necessary for the firefighters to take the date of November 30, which is a Saturday.

Of course, firefighters and those who associate with firefighters have fun, and it just doesn't make any difference as to the date. There will be a real live orchestra on board for the occasion and the boys are planning decorations and a chewing material so all will not go hungry, and there will be other things that we just won't mention at this time, but will lead to the picture of complete satisfaction and happiness.

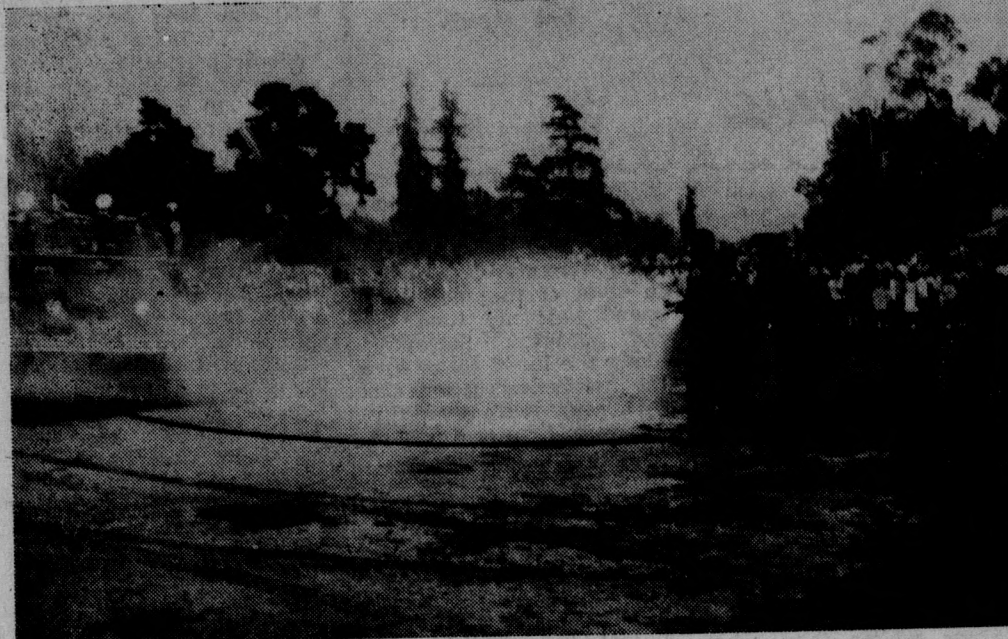

Anyway, you all know that tickets are a buck apiece and the money goes for the Christmas and Easter party for the children. Give the boys a lift . . . BUY TICKETS . . . Come and dance, and have fun.

My daughter was complaining the other day about the fast drivers who go by the school building as classes are letting out, so my only remark outside of cautioning her to be careful was . . . The guy who drives fast past a schoolhouse is probably the same person who was so slow getting through it a few years back . . . She really didn't know what I meant, but I am sure you do . . . or do you?

A taxpayer is a person who doesn't have to pass a civil service exam to work for the government; and a bureaucracy is a government of the people and for some of the people some of the time . . . A man told me the other day that there was a time when only Washington's face was on our money. Now Washington's hands are on it, too!

My banker told me that I should live within my income; he said that if I do I will be able to live without worry . . . As I was going out of the bank I also reminded myself that I would live without a lot of other things, too. Now, the

ONE OF THE FIVE "Fire Prevention" demonstrations put on by the Sierra Madre Firefighters this past week. Demonstrations were held at Sierra Madre, Sierra Mesa, St. Rita's, Mt. Alverno and Ascension schools. Open house was held at the fire station all day on Saturday, October 12. About one thousand attended and viewed the displays and equipment.

County Deposits $389,500

Financing of S.M. Canyon Wash Now Underway

County Flood Control District has been authorized to deposit $389,500 with the U.S. Corps of Engineers as part of the proposed Sierra Madre Wash channel project.

Supervisor Warren Dorn said the action was recommended by District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood.

The Corps plans to start the channel improvement work running from the vicinity of Acacia Street upstream to Sierra Madre dam during the spring of next year.

Broken down, the funds will be allocated as $91,000 for construction work considered a District obligation; $226,000 to pay for excavation of the basin area behind Sierra Madre Dam; $16,500 for installation of additional fencing, special channel wall construction and miscellaneous facilities; and $56,000 for work desired by the City of Sierra Madre.

Included in the contract will be bridge replacement structures at Camillo Street, Sturtevant Drive and two crossings of Woodland Drive; replacement of existing spreading grounds diversion facility; street work; various private bridges and other construction in lieu of rights of way; guardrails; fencing; and utility relocation.

Dorn said that in addition to work required of the District as a Federal obligation, it will be in the agency's best interests to include excavation of the basin behind the dam to increase capacity. Installation

Senior Citizens Met Saturday

The October 12 meeting of the Sierra Madre Senior Citizens Club was called to order by the president, Herman Dokken, at 11:45. Minette Ring gave the invocation and led the group in the Lord's Prayer.

Mr. Dokken called for the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the National Anthem was sung with Mrs. Vivian Singleton at the piano. Mrs. Reedy Hutcherson was introduced as a guest.

Following a break for lunch door prizes were awarded by Charles Ring. Millie Freislinger read the minutes of the last meeting. The treasurer's report was given by Pearl Patterson. Mrs. Ring also told of trips and entertainment. Dorothy Crouchley suggested that the October and November birthdays be celebrated on the last Saturday of November.

Pasteur Treatment Will Not Be Given Local Youngster

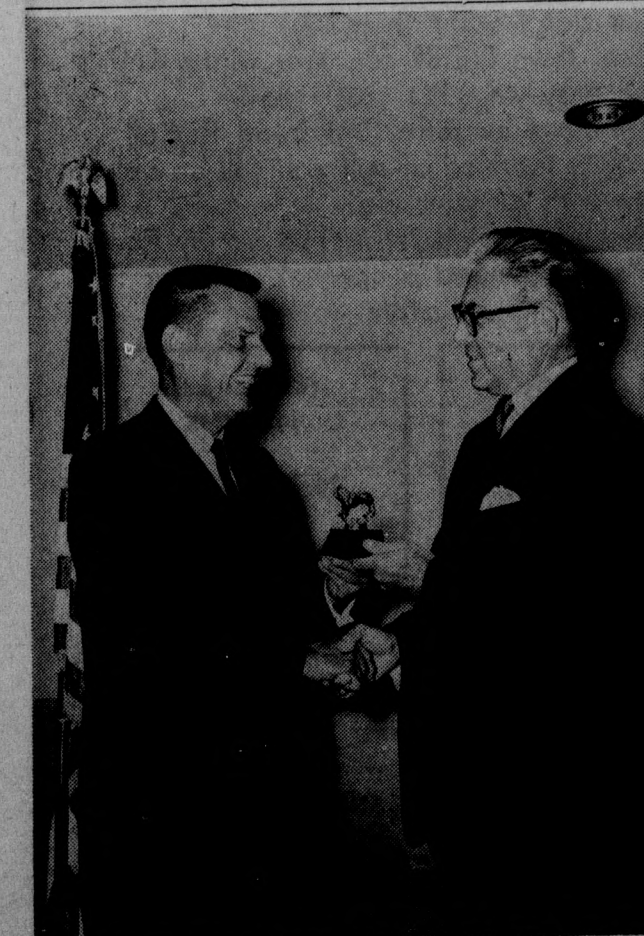

Such community cooperation! Our Police Department has been overwhelmed by the helpful attitude of all in trying to locate the dog that bit a small boy on October 1, at approximately 7:45 a.m. at the bus stop in front of the Sierra Madre Grammar School. The dog appeared friendly enough at the bus stop and played with the children prior to biting the young lad several times, including on the left upper leg and the right arm above the wrist.

Many people have reported seeing the animal and all reports have been checked out by our police. Officer Ed Kelley, investigator for the department, also conducted door-to-door inquiries in several areas where the dog was reportedly seen. The victim stated that the dog was black and white, spotted, and with a short tail. When shown pictures of various breeds of dogs, he picked out a picture of a German short-haired pointer. A woman witness to the attack stated the animal was very dark brown with a very short, or no tail. She stated that the dog was a male.

At the eleventh hour, the Roy Begley family decided not to give the Pasteur Treatment to their son. Their decision was based upon information given to them by Dr. Mathias, L.A. County rabies expert, who stated that since the bites were not severe, he did not believe the shots necessary. Tuesday was the day when the series of shots were to become necessary.

Decisions on whether to give the Pasteur Treatment are usually based on known facts, among which are: whether or not the animal—dog, cat, skunk, etc.—is wild or domesticated; whether or not the animal is kept enclosed in a yard

In this modern world of miracle fibers and new fabrics the lady in the laundry room must almost be a master chemist to have her laundry come out all even without spots and snowy clean.

After spending two days in my laundry lab doing the "wash" and straightening my cupboards I was appalled at the amount of helpful little chemicals I have accumulated to obtain the very best results.

There is chlorine bleach, and non-chlorine bleach. There are bottles to make things whiter than white, and powders to soften. I have a box of crystals that you run through your machine every now and then to remove excessive soap.

There are things you spray on spots before you launder the clothes that "releases" the soil. There are high sudsing and low sudsing and no sudsing laundry detergents that have or have not wonder bleaches, softeners, stiffeners, anything that happens to strike your fancy. There are cold water and hot water soaps, soaps for wools and soaps for nylons. If you don't know what you are washing the safest thing is just to throw the item away before you foul up the works with the wrong chemical or detergent.

Then there are the clothes that are wash and dry. Some you drip and some you tumble, but you must never tumble when you should have dripped or vice versa. There are some that require cold water and some that must have hot. There are spray starches that make your iron glide and there are those that build up a residue so you won't get spots if you spill coffee. Can't imagine why you'd want to spill coffee on anything after you've gone through all of the agony of getting it clean, but there it is. You gotta be protected from yourself.

I can't say that I don't like all of these new fibers and synthetics. I will have to admit they are most attractive and a far cry over the ginghams of yesteryear in spite of the fact that I spend half my time ironing fabrics. Someplace along the line I throw away the handy instruction sheet that come with everything you buy. I guess I just got discouraged looking up the "how to's" every time I did the washing so I threw caution to the winds and cleared out the whole mess. Now it's pot-luck and guessing games and a long prayer that the "Wear-Dated" fabrics just don't give out before the year is up.

Before this age of miracles and clothes dryers it was always kinda nice to get out in the sun and chat with your neighbors with a mouth full of clothes pins while you hung the wash. You might even end up at the kitchen table over a cup of coffee while the sun did its work drying and bleaching.

It gave you a wonderful feeling of accomplishment as you gathered and folded the sweet smelling clothes into your wicker clothes basket and prepared for

Shakespeare Club To Hold Casino
Royale Benefit, Saturday, Oct. 19

On October 19, at 8:30 p.m., the Casino Royale gambling tables will come alive at the Altadena Town and Country Club when the Shakespeare Club Juniors and their guests try to beat the odds for charity. A Casino Royale gourmet buffet will be served in the Menocino Room at midnight — that is for those who can be pulled away from the exciting charity tables.

Potential Las Vegas show girls, consisting of a number of women from the club, will be there to entertain the guests in a special routine. To add to the entertainment, the sounds of Curt Thompson and his orchestra will swing the evening away until 1 a.m. in the Victorian Room.

Mrs. Howard Shanks, president, and Mrs. Donald Smelser, benefit chairman and vice president of the Shakespeare Club Juniors informed us that all profits

6 New Members
In Toy Soldiers

The "Toy Soldiers" held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, October 9 from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Park House. Six new girls who were the first ones on the awaiting list, signed up. They were Julie Begley, Diann Munoz, Carolyn Sermak, Cindy Taylor, Mary Beth Zajac and Merry Licher, who was in the group for a short time last year.

After a discussion of the requirements and the jobs involved in taking care of the toys borrowed by 300 children at the Toy Loan Center every week, work schedules were made out.

The nine weeks remaining before the Toy Loan closes for the Christmas holidays will be festive ones. Halloween is just around the corner and during that week there will be a special Halloween Toy Grab and Halloween treats for all Toy Loan borrowers.

The greatest producer of real work is necessity.

You and Your Neighbor

by NANCY BRYAN

Jack and Diana Watts of Vista Circle have certainly been busy. About five months ago they purchased a large health food store in Pasadena and the running of this has been taking up their time. Diana is a world traveled health lecturer and is always available for lecturing, free of charge, for any group that is interested. (She must have a pretty full schedule). Last Tuesday, October 7, she lectured at the Artelope Valley College in Lancaster. She is also president of the Pasadena "Night Owls."

Her nutrition center is to be commended too; out in front of the store, under the patriotic red and white awning is a large basket for collection of books, which are sent to our boys in Vietnam, and magazines which are sent to Long Beach to any ships in service. Diana's store is not the only depot for this service, which was started only about one year ago by an 80 years young lady known as "Theodore." To date, 1500 to 2000 books per week have been sent to the boys in Vietnam. Pretty darn good, huh? These people are also interested in collecting old Christmas cards, messages, signatures and all, to be sent to orphanages all over the world. The children really enjoy reading the messages about families and friends and then they make a scrapbook of the cards, to be looked at at any time. Now all you citizens out there, who don't have any use for those extra books, magazines, Christmas cards . . .

Well, nobody seems to have seen tail nor feathers of the Raven "Sam" or "Xerxes" as he is sometimes known. Last time that the William J. Connor family of Skyland saw Sam was about in the middle of the month of August. At that time, Sam appeared on their back porch one very perturbed bird with silver paint splattered on him. . . . At this point, he wasn't very happy with anyone and brushed aside all friendly overtures. So no telling how he came about to have silver paint on him—whether by accident or mean and malicious intent and also no telling, by his non-appearance, whether or not something has happened to Sam or whether he finally realized that he was the bird that he was and headed for country more appropriate for his kind. Anyway, maybe by this time he was feeling a little fed up with the humans and had happily reconciled himself to being a member of the bird family. I hope that is what has happened to him. Nevertheless, Sam, we all wish you the best! Rest assured that the Connor family, as well as the rest of the population has missed you. The Connors have been busy in their vegetable garden, corn, beans, pumpkins and the like. It hasn't been easy without your help, they tell us, but they are managing!

Mr. and Mrs. Lonney Parks celebrated their first wedding anniversary on October 14. In way of observing the occasion, the young couple plan on having a piece of their wedding cake — the top tier of the cake was frozen, for just this occasion, and has been in the freezer of Earl and Muriel Cochran, parents of Mrs. Parks, the former Francie Dale Cochran. Well, congratulations on your first wedding anniversary and many, many more, each happier than the last!

Mrs. John J. Evans, the wife of a prominent mining man of Cananea, Mexico, is the guest of Miss Annis Coffey.

Miss Lillian Sayre and Miss Mary Lee of Los Angeles have taken apartments with Miss Brandt on Mountain Trail Ave.

Among the recent arrivals in Sierra Madre is Mr. W. L. Stanton, formerly of Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Stanton was an intimate acquaintance of the Mead and Mauck families, whom he had not seen for several years.

Mr. Roland Adams spent Sunday with friends in Riverside.

Speaking of weddings, it is said that one of Sierra Madre's "merry wids" is wearing a new solitaire about the size of an acorn.

The men's banquet at the Congregational Church this evening promises to be one of the most interesting social events for men ever held in Sierra Madre. About 50 men are expected to attend. The speakers and the preparations made by the ladies of the church assure a treat for body and soul.

Mr. J. H. Brandt and family of Osceola, Wis., the former brother of Miss M. C. Brandt, arrived recently to spend the winter here and are domiciled in the Wright cottage, corner Carter Ave. and Mountain Trail.

Russia is the great country which is causing so much anxiety to the whole world today. How much do we know of the perplexities, problems, burdens and heartaches in the lives of the populace of that vast land? Their need is great, and our opportunity is great.

Next Friday evening, Oct. 19, Mr. George W. Hunter, representing the American

European Fellowship, will show stereopticon views of life in Russia, Poland, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and other countries, which make a vivid impression of conditions as they exist today on the other side of the globe. The invitation is cordially extended to everyone, whether strangers, visitors, or other residents of this community, to come and enjoy the evening in Bethany Church.

First showing in Sierra Madre of the new Kodak motion pictures in colors was made this week by Rudolph Hartman at the Hartman Drug Store, local Kodak agents.

Miss Mabel Everett, who has been spending the summer at her old home in Toledo, Ohio, returned to Sierra Madre on Tuesday.

Mrs. Grace Borradaile returned last week from Europe where she spent the summer. She traveled through Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, France, Spain and England.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schlitz and family were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Arend of Los Angeles.

Carlton J. Pegler received a plaque from Mayor Char. H. James in recognition of his 44 years' service as city treasurer. The presentation was made by the mayor, city councilmen and Police Chief Gordon McMillan last Thursday evening. The plaque reads: "Carlton J. Pegler, in recognition of 44 years as treasurer for the City of Sierra Madre. David S. Wood, mayor, 1958; John G. Blumer, mayor, 1914."

Search and Rescue members, Miner Harkness and Earl La Lone were called to read topographical maps and direct out-of-town fire rigs at Base Camp in Monrovia Canyon. By 7 p.m., with the fire in the residential area still uncontrolled, Harkness moved Mac and Sylvia McRoberts (former Sierra Madreans) and belongings from their Bradbury Estate home.

A fetching Charles Adamish display in H. Clay Reavis' window features a monstrous back spider (make-believe) clinging to a dainty pink bouquet.

Alvin Embree, 214 W. Carter, will appear in person on the television program, "I Search for Adventure," at 7 p.m. Oct. 16, with his color film, "Orchid Jungle, made in Ecuador.

Mother-Daughter Swim Party

Camp Fire Girls, from Blue Birds through Junior High members, in Sierra Madre met last Sunday, October 6, for a mother-daughter swim party. The party, to begin the new school year, was held at the Sierra Madre pool.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Alfred Dun, president of the San Gabriel Valley Council of Camp Fire Girls. She spoke informally to the mothers present about the Camp Fire organization and its goals. Mrs. Dunn stated it is a "volunteer character-building organization, having four levels for girls according to their age. It emphasizes femininity by giving awards in the form of wooden beads and silver jewelry according to Indian lore."

Cookies, lemonade and coffee were served, and despite the overcast skies an enjoyable time was had.

in trouble with the law.

Yes, the majority of Americans have had their fill. They know what to do, and unquestionably they will do when they go into the polling places in November. They know that the country needs an administration that will systematically dismantle the edifice of special privilege that the Kennedy and Johnson administrations built to house all those who want to sponge off their fellow citizens or abuse the country that gives them freedom.

For almost eight years the United States has travelled the wrong road, and the American people have suffered cruelly. But there is light at the end of the road. The return of orderly, rational government now is in sight.

Meet three new owners of the Gas Company.

How can you tell?

Matter of fact, you can't—just by looking at them, because so many owners of the Gas Company look just like your neighbors. In fact, they probably are your neighbors. For the Gas Company (like any investor-owned company in America) is owned by all kinds of people from all walks of life.

There are more than 16 million shares of our business owned by people like barber Vince Cottone. Some of these people bought our stock in their own names. Others, like Patsy Cook, may have become owners of the Gas Company by way of investments their employers have made for their pension plans. Still others, like Duke Morton (getting his first hair cut), may have become owners because their grandfathers bought them shares as birthday presents.

People who have a financial stake in the Gas Company know that any company that can offer good service at reasonable rates is going to do all right. And that's the way we do business.

But whether you're an investor or not, the Gas Company works for you anyway. As an investor-owned company, regulated by the California Public Utilities Commission, we depend on your support. We do our best to deserve it. That's why we work extra hard to please you.

Sgt. Jim Teal Introduced To City

ciate, Sgt. Teal came West to enter police work where it had been suggested that he would find the epitome of working condition, attitudes and such. After investigating several towns James Teal and his family chose to accept a position with the Palm Springs Police Department. While in Palm Springs, he worked as a motor officer for awhile. He laughingly tells a joke on himself about this phase of his career. Seems he parked the motor in front of his house and since all motor officers are extra big heroes, the kids in the neighborhood, along with the Teal children, were out looking it over. They were having a great time broad-casting over the mike and "10-4-ing" until the dispatcher at the station phoned the Teal home and advised him to please... immediately check his motorcycle for radio transmission problems.

Sept. 15, 1965, found the Sergeant being appointed, as a police officer, to our Police Department here in Sierra Madre, after hearing of an opening. Not too long after that he and his family moved to Azusa where they still reside. Jim became a Sergeant in July of 1965. Aside from police work, his schooling, his hobbies occupy Sergeant Teal's spare time. He presently is attending PCC and expects to receive a degree in Police Science this semester. Police Science courses were all the main dish during Teal's attendance at Michigan State College, College of the Desert in Palm Springs and USC.

Lorraine and Jim have five children ranging from a 14-year-old girl, an 11-year-old boy, an 8-year-old boy and a 7-year-old boy to a 5-year-old girl who just entered kindergarten this year and loves it. As it should be, the Teals take an active interest in the children's hobbies, home-work and activities and therefore get pretty involved with Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, football, baseball and so on... and on... and on.

The whole family enjoys waterskiing and they have recently purchased a boat which enables lots more of this sport at places like Elsinore and Puddingstone. Fishing, hunting and golfing are pastimes enjoyed by the Sergeant when he can find time and opportunity.

A fairly recent hobby that the Sergeant acquired within the last eight years is oil painting. He prefers the "old" style art — like scenery, birds, people — as opposed to the extremes of the modern styles of painting. He particularly enjoys sketching of a friend, resulting in an oil portrait, is really what started the hobby.

This gentleman, who is among the pipe-smoking contingent at the station, has done surveys on various cities in regard to aspects of law enforcement in general — facilities, systems, budgets etc. — and is a strong advocate of local law enforcement. He feels that some of the recent developments to make county police departments is all wrong. That the problem should definitely be a local responsibility which would quite sensibly be more efficient.

"Today," states Sgt. Teal, "problems of multiplicity of values in our society makes a policeman's job more difficult." He continues, "There is such a wide gap between extremes of complete law and lack of any (complete) law at all."

Sergeant, we are glad you are on duty at our station helping to preserve law and order and to protect our citizens.

Senior Citizens

ber. Mrs. Crouchley told of a trip to Lake Tahoe, for October 29, 30 and 31. Mrs. Symonds gave a reading by Mr. Dokken about getting old.

Mr. Dokken reminded the members of the regional picnic to be held October 15 at the County Park in Arcadia. Lucy Forgin told of sending cards to Helen Wheeler and Frances Gardner who have been ill.

Mr. Dokken thanked Mr. Ridgeway for taking over for him at the last meeting and thanked the ones who brought flowers. Mrs. Singleton played two piano selections and there being no further business the group adjourned for games.

Pasture Necessary

at all times or allowed by owners to run loose; also the location, seriousness and number of animal bite wounds and the appearance of the suspected animal itself — if they have it in custody quarantine — are among things considered.

I would guess that in most cases a tetanus shot is certainly a necessity. A close small relative was bitten by another relative's dog and after immediate examination by a physician at an emergency hospital, the tetanus booster shot was given in addition to the customary prophylactic treatment. This dog, strictly a watchdog, and in this particular case was never allowed out of the yard and had had all of his shots, including rabies, kept up to date and current. Therefore, the rabies treatment was not deemed necessary for this victim.

Veterans Administration physicians have performed about 350 of the about 1,000 kidney transplants made in the United States since the first such operation was performed in 1952.

Kennedy returns to his duties in the Senate.

Bridge Happening For Don Benito PTA October 25

Tickets may also be purchased at the door on October 25.

Merit Badges

a beautiful trophy with the name of the Troop and Mr. Hyke's name. Program committee chairman, Mr. Lakin, then introduced Mr. Rudy Ruiz, the new Scoutmaster. Mrs. Lake and Mrs. Gormley were in charge of refreshments for the evening and served a large sheet cake, made especially for the occasion, with the BSA emblem and Mr. Hyke's name on it.

A reminder — Scouting is beneficial and fun. Troop No. 372 hold weekly meetings in St. Rita's Parish Hall every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. and all boys and their parents are invited to attend the meetings.

Kennedy returns to his duties in the Senate.

Letters To the Editor

Dear Boss:

Thanks for the time off. I never did like to sell anything that had any of the earmarks of a gimmick. So, you Boss, gave me a few minutes of time to go and find out for myself.

I had always thought that a figure salon was, more than likely, a figure salon! Just another saloon! Just another means to part me from some of my dough to keep my girl friend's shape, shapely? Therefore, with a pre-conceived idea, I managed to talk myself into a visit to the Irene Russell Salon down on South Baldwin. And may I add now, that I am glad I did.

In the first place I found that "Taint a saloon but a salon" and all done in very good taste.

Miss Irene Russell is herself an R.N. and also has a very successful salon in Montrose. Miss Russell, in real life Mrs. Irene Tansley (who to this bachelor's eye is a living example of figure fantastic) decided that if she can do this for herself, she can do the same for others.

The result of her relaxing methods, passive exercise and a suggested diet does and will bring to any gal that is so inclined, an honest correction of her figure faults. Ladies will find that overweight, poor posture, lumps and bulges, steno hips, etc., will be lost or moved to their proper location should they follow her methods. Just can't think of a better way to get whistles back where they belong, with those who can appreciate.

Working behind Miss Russell, I found two startling young ladies. Each, in their own rights expertly able to do the job that they are supposed to do. Mrs. Jack Stewart (Jean) is the day manager. She has a degree in dietetics and her previous experience as a known model and also manager of a well known finishing school in the East, qualifies her to assist Miss Russell. But most interesting is her avid belief in her work and what she is doing for others. For the information of other bachelors that may see this, she has three fine boys and is married to a career man in the Navy. Tough, fellows!

Mrs. Bob Manning (Leslie) is the night manager. She too, exhibits the same enthusiasm and feeling of accomplishment with relation to her work. Not only is she a dietician but also a practical nurse. Qualified to back up all the statements regarding the improvement of health and (dare I say it?) moving fat from here to there. She has the idea that health and proper weight are two items that can and will bring greater happiness to our ladies with an "avoir du pois" problem.

Anyhow, I have now learned my lesson. I found this to be a worthy enterprise. One well worth looking into and my pre-conceived ideas are now to be put into file 13. Come to think of it, as I sit in front of this typewriter, I can see that my own little pot could was also a guest of the Unit.

Mrs. Orcellia Henderson who spent the summer in Santa Fe with her daughter and Mrs. Ethel Stein, who vacationed with friends in Detroit were welcomed back to the group.

New members present were: Mrs. Hazel Cowart, Mrs. Millie Freislinger and Mrs. Nellie Holloway. Charter members Lella Roberts and Blanche Bule were welcome additions to the meeting.

Mrs. Edith Noshier, rehabilitation chairman displayed the gifts to be donated to the Christmas Gift Shop at San Fernando by Sierra Madre Unit. This gift shop enables hospitalized veterans to select suitable gifts of $3 value for each member of their family, free of charge. These gifts are then wrapped and mailed to the recipients. She also showed four hand pieced, tied quilts for wheel chair patients. 1350 poppies were ordered to be sold in May.

The next meeting will be October 24 at the home of Thelma Proctor.

Letters To The Editor Reflects Opinions And Remarks ::

Dear Editor:

There has been a great deal of discussion concerning the so-called "wasted vote," and it seems to me the term is generally misused.

For instance, when Franklin D. Roosevelt ran for the Presidency, he promised he would cut government spending and not involve this country in an European war. Certainly the individuals who believed Mr. Roosevelt's promises and voted for him on that basis wasted their votes.

When General Eisenhower ran for the Presidency, he promised to rid the government of Communists and security risks in its employ. Instead of fulfilling his promise, he helped "defeat" Senator McCarthy, who was trying to do just what Ike himself had promised in the campaign. Those individuals who voted for General Eisenhower because he promised to stop the spread of Communism both at home and abroad certainly wasted their votes.

When President Johnson campaigned against Barry Goldwater, he promised Americans he would not send American servicemen to do what the Vietnamese boys should do. Furthermore, he promised he would not further escalate the war in Vietnam. I believe that most Americans who chose to vote for President Johnson because of the promises he made wasted their votes, and many now admit it.

Neither Roosevelt, Eisenhower, nor Johnson performed after election as they promised they would when they campaigned. They did just the opposite. Therefore, it is my contention that the only people who "waste their vote" are those who put promise ahead of principle. No matter how badly a candidate is defeated, a vote cast for him is not wasted if it is based on principle.

I feel that Richard Nixon has more promise than principle; that Hubert Humphrey has neither. My vote will not be wasted in this year's Presidential election. I'll stand up for America.

—Richard E. Woodin

Dear Editor:

While Nixon, with his high-toned words and meaningless phrases, goes blandly on "playing house" with his imagination and Humphreys offer the well-to-do people of Leisure World bigger welfare checks, George Wallace goes merrily on his way boosting public morale and talking common sense that people understand.

Now George understands big words same as Nixon but he isn't trying to impress anybody. He just tells the folks the truth with two and three syllable words. He's saving the big ones for high society at the White House.

—C. T. Gilbreath

Dear Editor:

Our Founding Fathers feared that political parties would gain such control in this country that the men seeking high office would be more concerned with party politics and platforms than with the Constitution. Their fears were certainly justified.

Political parties, though, need not put party platform above their country's Constitution. When they do, however, advocates of a Constitutional Republic have but one choice — to form a new party which does stand by the Constitution.

As history has clearly shown, the effect of a new political party causes one or both existing parties to move in the direction of the new party. A good example of this is the Socialist Party in the United States. Its original platform and principles have been so foisted upon the American citizen by the Democrats, who have moved far towards socialism, that the Socialist leader, Norman Thomas, can today say there is no real need for him to run for President to achieve his party's objectives.

Even the Republican Party has moved towards the socialist goals, offering as the only difference the mere fact that they deserve to run the socialist program conservatively.

The question today seems to be, is a vote for George Wallace in reality wasted? I think not. His strength at the polls will determine if either party will move in his direction. Already the Republicans, headed by Nixon, have begun to sound like Wallace, and the votes haven't even been counted yet.

America must return to its Constitution. George Wallace can best lead that move. Even if he is not elected, a large Wallace vote will tell Richard Nixon that he must do more than simply try to sound like a constitutional conservative — he must become one. If either of these becomes a reality, the United States gains. If neither happens, America will have been "stood up," instead of its citizens having stood up for America.

Dear Editor:

The following is a copy of an open letter sent to the Pasadena Zoning Commission.

Dear Sirs:

As residents of Kinneloa Mesa, we wish to register our protest to the proposed zoning variance which permit other than R-1 building in this area.

This area is zone for R-1 — let's keep it that way.

The residents and property owners of this area have told the Commission we wish to remain as is.

We could give many reasons for our decisions in this regard, but let it suffice to say that Zoning Codes were not made to be broken; they were made to insure stability.

Do not issue a variance to Garrish Swim Club.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shlaudemann

Dear Editor:

It is shocking to hear that the words, "law and order," are considered "racist terms." It was even more shocking to hear Senator Edward Brooke of Massachusetts say that Richard Nixon's use of the words, "law and order" were somehow paying homage to the racist elements in America. Further, the Senator felt that, when Mr. Nixon refers to the fact that Americans can no longer walk the streets of this country in safety, he should refer to "law and justice" instead of "law and order."

Doesn't that seem just a bit strange? What phase of order can be described as racist? Since order can only be maintained by law, wouldn't it seem more logical that only law would be considered racist? It is possible that an unjust law could be passed, thus creating in some instances an unjust order. In such an instance the injustice could not be blamed on the order but on the law. Surely if the law is just, then the order should be just.

Therefore, if the term, "racist," could be applied to either words, it would more apply to the word, "law." If the slogan were to be changed because of its supposed "racist" overtones, would it not be more logical to change it to "justice and order," instead of "law and justice?"

Law and justice, without order, are the seedbeds of anarchy, for law and justice become words without meaning when there is no order. A government which cannot maintain order collapses and, after a brief reign of anarchy, tyranny is the end result.

When order is maintained, though, even if the laws are not just, the laws can be changed in the halls of Congress—not in the streets. An enlightened citizenry will change unjust laws so that respect for them will be maintained, and order preserved.

Law and order are not racist words, but there is no doubt that the slogan, "law and justice," is one of the anarchist.

—Richard E. Woodin.

Dear Editor:

Traditionally, the nursery school has been a part of Sierra Madre Community Chest and later, United Way. This community has supported United Way generously, knowing that its own community organization was, in a small way, receiving funds for all parents and children who could not otherwise benefit from a nursery school experience.

Under a new plan of priorities, United Way has begun to talk about "phasing out" the nursery school. Since some of our families receive assistance, the nursery school would have to cover these needs either through increasing tuition or fund raising.

We should like United Way to better understand how the citizens of this area feel about their support of the nursery school. It has been suggested that this year when you donate to United Way or AID you designate that part of all of your donation go to the nursery school. This will in no way affect the amount the nursery school receives since this year's allotment has already been set, but it will give United Way material evidence of the citizens' interest.

We hope you will discuss this matter with your friends and former nursery school parents and ask their cooperation. Persons living outside of Sierra Madre may do the same.

Christian Laity Sunday will be observed in the 10:30 Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, Pasadena. This year's theme for Laity Sunday in Lutheran Churches-Missouri Synod is: "Called of God for Such a Time as This."

In accord with this emphasis the local congregation will initiate its 1969 Fiscal Stewardship Program, entitled "Declaration of Prayerful Intention." In the 10:30 service, the following officers will address the worshippers: Mr. Lee Rindard and Mr. William Reed of the Fiscal Department; and Dr. Donald Garner, Dr. Walter A. Schroeder, and Mr. Robert Harbur, elders.

The pastoral meditation will center on some of the words from the 96th Psalm. The Junior Choir will present Faithcloth's "Blessed Jesus, At Thy Word," the Youth Choir will sing, "Take My Life and Let It Be," and the Senior Choir will give Alderson's "Lord of Glory, Who Hast Bought Us."

On Sunday afternoon at 4 the youth of the congregation will travel to Temple City and join with youth of ten other valley churches for a Rally. A report from the Purdue Youth Gathering will be presented.

Other activities for the week include: Women's Christian Service Guild at 7:45 on Monday evening, Sunday school staff on Tuesday evening at 7:30, Lutheran Women's Missionary League Sewing Group at 10 on Wednesday morning.

Lesson-Sermon
For October 20

"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God."

This passage from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians is part of the responsive reading of this week's Christian Science Lesson-Sermon titled "Doctrine of Atonement." It will be read in all of the denomination's churches this Sunday.

One of the related passages to be read from the denominational textbook is the following: "Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage. His mission was both individual and collective. He did life's work aright not only in justice to himself, but in mercy to mortals—to show them how to do theirs, but not to do for them nor to relieve them of a single responsibility." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

Nearly seven million home loans valued at $70 billion have been made under the World War II G.I. loan program since 1944. VA reports that half the loans are now fully repaid.

Among nearly 2 million Vietnam era veterans are 14,000 under 20 years of age. Mid-Week Bible Hour at 7:30 on Wednesday evening, and Senior Choir at 8 on Thursday evening.

SPORTS

AS
SEES IT

HANKUS' PEERLESS PROGNOSTICATOR . . . OLD HANKUS is off to a rousing start in the 1968 pigskin picking derby. In fact his 45 wins and just 11 losses (17-3 last week) puts him at the 82 per cent level and that's hard to beat. In the limberlawler division he has successfully picked five out of seven upsets including the Jets over the Chargers and Mississippi over Alabama last week.

TOO MUCH back-patting you say. Shucks, he's the guy that picked the California Angels to win the A.L. pennant this year.

LET'S FORGET BASEBALL. NICE GOING, HANKUS, you blew another great baseball prediction. First you pick the California Angels to finish first in the American League, that's a laugh. Then you tab Cincinnati in the senior circuit. That's another laugh. Then just to make it a reverse quinnella, you pick the Cards in the Series. Nice going, baby, you did it again.

WRAPPING UP THE SEASON . . . Johnny Roseboro (216) and Ron Perreoski (8-7 and 310 era) didn't exactly burn up the American League after their trade to Minnesota. Of course the 196 for the Dodgers. Some tardes just don't work out.

DICK WILLIAMS, the "Cinderella manager" of 1967 never ranked Mayo Smith among his list of top managers . . . Hankus was right in one respect, the pitcher controlled the series. Lolich and Gibson were the whole show . . . The Cards look tough for another year with an outfield of Brock, Flood and Pinson. It must be one of the all-time fastest trios . . . Imagine, Bob by Knoop outhit Jim Freese . . . Jungle Jim's 244 with just 9 homers and 49 rbi's lost him his spot as All-Star shortstop . . . Would you trade Claude Osteen for Leo Cardenas?

RALPH HOUK did a heck-of-a job managing the Yankees to a first division berth with a team batting of .214 . . . ODDITY — The Alou family hit a collective .307 with Matty leading the way at .322. Neither Matty nor Jesus hit a home all season but muscular brother Felipe had 11 . . .

LITTLE THIS-N-THAT . . . Some people think Jim Hardy's "Star Trek" was a bit hokey, but the L.A. Star's general manager received a lot of "ink" and TV coverage from it . . . The Stars tangled with Western Division favorites Oakland on Sunday and Monday and face the defending champion Pipers (now Minnesota) but formerly Pittsburgh) in a three game pre-season set this weekend.

Bill Sharman should have a pretty good idea of what to expect after that. THEY SAY EX-LANCER John Trapp is a borderline case with the San Diego Rockets despite a no-cut contract. Big John has all the tolls making this disturbing news.

REID ALLEN and his Pasadena Quarterback gang are doing a fine job of presenting top flight athletic figures at their Friday meetings. Teh Club meets at noon at the Brookside Clubhouse and it is open to the public.

IT WAS DISASTROUS for pigskin prognosticators last weekend. The only thing Hankus did right was tab Ohio State to pull the rug out from under Purdue. The old percentage dipped to .76 with some narrow losses suffered by Washington (3 points), Oregon State (1 point), California (3 points) and Texas A & M (5 points).

LOCALLY it's the big one. Blair versus Pasadena. Both unbeaten. The Vikings made believers out of Hankus with the 20-0 triumph and it looks like a 16-14 verdict for the BLAIRS . . . MUIR to shellack Hoover. BAKERSFIELD'S angry Renegades come to town to battle the PCC Lancers (3-). I would dearly love to see an upset for the locals but the Gades are number one ranked among the nation's JC's so we look for a three TD verdict.

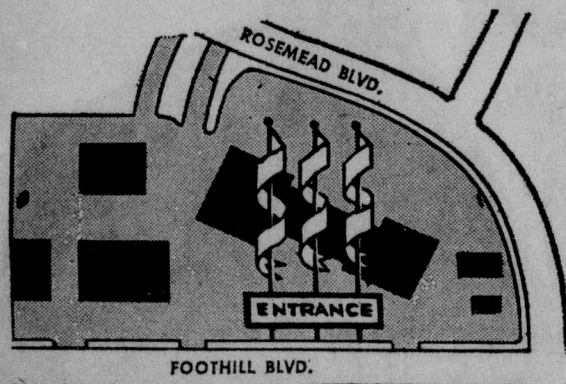

THE RAMS should be able to handle Atlanta and the CHARGERS rate a solid choice over Denver.

USC should be able to triumph over Washington IF O. J. stays in one piece . . . CALIFORNIA will hand the Bruins their third straight loss . . . STANFORD to wax Washington State . . . OREGON STATE to nip Arizona State.

AMONG THE LIMB-CRAWLERS include IDAHO upsetting Oregon . . . MICHIGAN STATE over Minnesota . . . INDIANA over Michigan.

NEBRASKA to nip Missouri . . . ARKANSAS over Texas . . . TENNESSEE to edge Alabama . . . SAN DIEGO STATE over the up and coming Diablos of Cal State L.A. . . . TEXAS A & M over Texas Christian . . . SOUTHERN METHODIST over Rice . . . OHIO STATE over Northwestern

Plant the Seed

where you expect to Reap

IT'S what you might call a commonly recognized agricultural principle that if you want to do your harvesting on a particular piece of ground, that's the place to sow your seed.

Using the same general type of reasoning, it is obvious that if you want to harvest a nice crop of prosperity . . . in the form of better business, a better job, a better community in which to live . . . it's advisable to plant your trade dollars where they will produce growth for you, rather than for somebody else.

✓ The homes we live in . . . the jobs and businesses which support us . . . the schools and churches that teach our children and enrich our lives . . . the convenient stores and service establishments that supply our everyday and emergency needs . . . none of these were built, nor are they supported by the dollars that are spent in some other community or city.

It Pays to Buy Where You Live

way to get a lot of undivided attention is to make a mistake and I made a mistake by going to see my banker, I should have gone to see my creditors. They are the ones that keep putting me in the predicament. . . . Oh, well, owe a little, live a little, the government is going to take over eventually anyway, so let them worry.

The Konkler-Bradley Pool Controversy has now had its 40-11th round, and again the ruling is in the favor of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Konkler. Twice before a Variance was asked for and given by the Planning Commission. This time the Zoning Board of Appeals by a vote of 4-0 granted them a Variance to have their pool as located.

This will definitely not be the end of the affair. We are almost positive that this ruling will eventually be appealed to the City Council and probably in December or January it will be before them for an appeal ruling.

Then after this decision, the end may not be in sight. Lawsuits may be brought forth, and we may still be hearing about this controversy for the next six months. Too bad that all this money should be wasted, but that is the privilege of people and you cannot blame everyone for exploiting what he THINKS is the best for himself.

We are closing up this column a little early this week with the following observation: "Savings must be set aside before spending begins, or there will never be any savings." And wouldn't we appreciate it if our federal, state and local governments were to observe that law!

Today, everything seems to be under federal control except its budget. As a result, as someone has so aptly put it, "Our government has now reached the place where the only additional source of revenue it can think of is a TAX ON TAXES." . . . Heaven forbid, I hope, I hope, I hope.

What a marvelous vacation! Earl and Muriel Cochrane of Laurel left September 11 on a month long cruise aboard the American-Norwegian Lines' "Bergensfjord." Nine different ports were on their itinerary, Ireland being the first country they touched and the Azores the last stop before starting home. They enjoyed every minute of the trip and would go again tomorrow, undoubtedly, if they had the chance.

Step Forward

Heretofore, our civic and school officials have told us that the reason property taxes are high is because the state has not paid its share of the expenses which the state has mandated; particularly in the areas of welfare and education. These same civic leaders have pointed out the inequities by showing how rich communities such as lovely Beverly Hills have lower tax rates than poorer communities.

The Watson Amendment, which was devised with the advice of political economists, is a step toward remedying these inequities. Its object is twofold: 1) is to prevent the destruction of private home ownership as a way of life, and 2) is to shift taxes for "people related services," such as welfare and schools, away from property and onto the state tax base, thus restricting property tax to the financing of "property related" services only.

In the last few years property tax delinquencies have reached the highest levels since the great depression. In Los Angeles County, one dollar out of every fifty dollars is delinquent for one year or more. Delinquencies on the Pasadena roll are even higher.

Local government spending, the fundamental cause of taxes, has become alarming. Property tax levies are rising at twice the rate of the cost of living and population combined, and if this trend continues, many citizens will be driven from their own homes, certain businesses will be driven from the state, and our public credit will be destroyed.

Proposition 9, the Watson Amendment, enormously stabilizes this runaway local spending by restricting property taxes to 1% of the market value within 5 years, and in addition, this constitutional amendment protects public credit by restricting bond debt to 5% of property market value.

Although the task of reducing government spending remains, the Watson Amendment is a decisive step toward protecting private home ownership and certain businesses from ultimate destruction by taxation.

In the Tradition of Service

When driving through country that hasn't felt the fast-paced change of modern civilization, one occasionally runs across a relic of an earlier day in the automobile age. It is likely to be a square-like structure with a rather spindly-looking portico out in front. There may still be a couple of rusty gas pumps. This was a service station of a generation ago.

The service station business is much changed, but the underlying fundamentals remain the same. An important part of the product continues to be courteous and helpful service for the motorist. Competition, always sharp, is keener than ever. Typical of American retailing, the modern service station has become a high-volume, low mark-up business, and one of the old gas stations would fit in the corner of the lube room in a modern day station.

In keeping with the national concern for environmental improvement, the major oil companies now employ some of the best architectural talent in the country to plan and design service stations which will blend harmoniously with their surroundings, whether they be western ranch-style or colonial New England. Along with the high-quality products and service, attractive stations that are an asset aesthetically as well as in a business sense, to the communities they serve are an extra benefit of competitive retailing in the petroleum industry. They are the kind of progress that happens naturally in the free marketplace where the best in quality, price and merchandising methods are the prerequisites of business success.

If you do not believe this, look at our own brand new 76 Station, now in operation at the corner of Baldwin and Sierra Madre Blvd. Union Oil has spent well over $100,000 to give the people of Sierra Madre the most modern in service station facilities. We should be proud of this new addition to our city.

Fighters For Freedom

In Czechoslovakia, Communist totalitarianism has destroyed its most feared enemy—the free press. Newspapers and broadcasters in that country are now forbidden to make any news reports that "could be considered as criticism" by the Soviet-led occupation forces.

In the United States, nearly 11,000 newspapers serve as watchdogs of the public interest. The editors are free to report the news and comment on it as they see fit. With the free press looking over its shoulder, government from City Hall to the White House has to put its best foot forward, and outright oppression of the people becomes impossible.

For various reasons, freedom of the press in the United States has been criticized and proposals put forward to limit its ability to report the news. Different explanations for this have been cited including national security and the question of whether pretrial reporting of crime news makes it impossible to get an impartial jury. In debating the latter point with a member of the legal profession, the managing editor of The New York Times has said, "... We newspapermen do not believe that a law degree makes a man more honorable than a degree in journalism ... I have absolutely no doubt that the free press in America has prevented and corrected far more injustices than it has committed."

This about sums it up. The action taken in Czechoslovakia is another reminder of the role played by the free press in preserving the freedom of any society, including our own.

The Wrong Answers

The head of a leading Washington State utility firm, in addressing a college graduating class, stressed the ultimate responsibility of the individual for the quality of life in modern society.

By citing an example in his own company, he suggested how not to apply for a job. Two important positions were open in the engineering department. "Of the first twenty applicants for the two jobs, eighteen were rejected because of the kind of questions they asked. They did not seem interested in promotion, or the nature of problems the company has to solve. ... Instead, ... they asked about the company's pension plan, retirement, and the nature of fringe benefits. ... Pensions and security are all right, but ... We buy machines for production, not for polishing and oiling, and strange as it may sound, we hire employees for the same reason."

We hear a great deal about the search for challenges nowadays. It could be that too many of us like our challenges to come equipped with a guarantee of security.

by
DR. HENRY V. WITTY

Editor's Note: While Dr. Henry V. Witty is on leave we will present several guest columnist's viewpoint on various affairs for which this newspaper takes responsibility.

While it was obvious six months ago that a section of the U.S. public was deeply unhappy with the course the country was taking, few people, if any, had any idea of the depth of the protest against "liberal" permissiveness that lay under the surface of the national life. Now, only a few weeks before the presidential election, the protest against defeatism abroad and lawlessness at home has become a tidal wave. Vice President Humphrey's campaign has an air of futility about it, and the only hope of the "liberals" is that the conservative vote will be so split that the Great Society forces will squeak through to victory.

Whatever the final decision of conservatives, it now is clear that a fundamental change has taken place in American politics. For years the "forgotten men" in American life were the white collar and blue collar citizens who paid their taxes and supported the welfare handouts with their hard-earned dollars. The dominant left-of-center intelligentsia ignored the needs and scorned the beliefs of the great middle class—the vast majority in the United States — and catered to the demands of a minority. The national news media, such as the television networks and news magazines, propagandized in favor of legislation repugnant to the majority. It built up public figures into virtual saints — figures who had a dream of America that was not the dream of the great majority.

At last, however, the majority has found its voice. The majority has learned that it can assert itself independently and politically despite the thought-orientation techniques of the television networks and the slanted news coverage of the news magazines. Even some of the media people, such as "liberal" columnist Joseph Kraft, have acknowledged that the national commentators have lost contact with the average American and are uninterested in the average American. Ironically, it was the left-wing — the people who were supporting Sen. Eugene McCarthy and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy — who called for "participatory politics" in the United States, meaning the politics of personal involvement and grassroots action. "Participatory politics" has caught on in this election, but not the way the leftists intended. Instead, there has been a profound grassroots uprising among the "average" Americans scored by those who want to turn this nation into radical paths.

The unmistakable truth is that the vast majority of Americans have had their fill of strife and disorder, defeat and anarchy. They are sick at heart because American lives have been wasted in a war that the Johnson-Humphrey administration has conducted as Sen. Strom Thurmond has said, on a "no-win" basis.

For several years, Americans have sat before their television sets and seen rioters burn down entire sections of American cities. They have seen Black Power interviewed on TV and impudently state that they want to put America to the torch. Americans have read about the hordes of anarchists who stormed the Pentagon a year ago and who later occupied academic buildings at Columbia University and reduced that institution to an organizational shambles.

In recent days, Americans have learned about the riotous conduct of relief recipients in New York City who broke up welfare centers and destroyed public records because they weren't getting all the financial aid they demanded.

Good Americans, who go to work each day, have seen the Great Society pour billions of dollars into anti-poverty schemes, subsidizing idlers and worse. They have taken note of dozens of outrageous programs and schemes, such as using tax funds to hire lawyers for Job Corps enrollees who get

This paragraph is dedicated to the good folks who enjoy watching horses run, even horses pulling two-wheeled carts. My wife's brother is an authority of horse racing; in fact, he's spent a fortune on his education. Western Harness Racing began at Hollywood Park September 30 and continues through December 23. RTD is offering excellent service to the track from downtown Los Angeles on the 5 line, from Hollywood on the 57 line, and from South Gate and Huntington Park on the 54 line. Send for a folder.

The Rapid Transit Design Car will be on display at First and Pine in Long Beach October 17th through the 20th. Try to see this fantastic full-sized prototype of the Rapid Transit car proposed for Los Angeles.

The brand new 133 line connecting La Puente with West Covina and Eastland began operation October 17. This line passes directly in front of Queen of the Valley Hospital. Three more lines (all new) began operation October 14.

The 134 and 135 lines will offer local operation in the City of El Monte. The 134 line goes from Norwood Village through the El Monte bus station and on to South El Monte.

The 135 line starts at Norwood Village and follows a different route through El Monte to South El Monte.

Line 136 line began operating on Passons Boulevard in Pico Rivera between Whittier Boulevard and Telegraph Road. This will provide a vital line between these two areas.

Next week I will be describing three more new or improved lines that will provide you with better bus service.

- Q. Why are there so few RTD lines running from north to south in the San Gabriel Valley. I live in Azusa and work in El Monte, and it's next to impossible to go by bus. P.D.
- A. One of the biggest reasons is lack of patronage in that area. At least two bus companies tried to provide this service, but went out of business. With the coming of Rapid Transit will be improved feeder bus service, or in other words, new lines from your area direct to El Monte station.
- Q. How can I get to Hollywood Park from Alhambra? I live near Mission and Garfield. Mr. P.I.
- A. Take the 61 line on Garfield to Main Street in Alhambra, change to the 52 line to downtown Los Angeles and catch the race track bus on Broadway.
- Q. Is there bus service to Woodbury College from South Pasadena? Miss L.L.
- A. Not directly, but you can take the 68, 70 or 71 bus lines to 7th and Spring and catch the 83-Wilshire to the school.
- Q. What RTD line serves Mount San Antonio College? I live in Monterey Park. Miss J.O.
- A. The only RTD line coming anywhere near the college is the 53-Valley line and you are still a country mile from the complex when you get off the bus. Sorry about that.
